

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE

XXXIst CONGRESS—First Session.

bill for supplying the deficiencies in the previous appropriations for the support of the Government. Every department was suffering for want of money.

Mr. BOWDEN (Loos) of Ala. said that it was now 3 o'clock, and too late to act on it. There was another subject on which gentlemen could speak up to the time of adjournment. He meant the subject of California.

Mr. KAUFMAN (Loos) of Texas, moved that the subject be taken up.

Mr. BATLY said that Mr. Bowden had no right to the floor.

Mr. BOWEN—I have.

Mr. BATLY—An arrangement with the gentleman from New York, Mr. Clarke, who is entitled to the floor on the California question, I moved to take up the deficiency bill.

Mr. SCHENCK asked the question, and the Speaker replied that the deficiency bill had the precedence.

Mr. BATLY said that if the Committee would attend to the bill, it could be passed in an hour—at any rate, some progress could be made.

The question was put on taking up the deficiency bill, but no quorum voted.

A point of order was raised, and the roll of members was called to ascertain the names of the absentees.

The Committee rose, but a quorum being found none present, the House again went into Committee, and immediately after rose, when the Chairman reported that they had the state of the Union generally under consideration, and no particular measure.

The House then adjourned.

CITY ITEMS.

The Corporation Proceedings of last evening are crowded out this morning.

"THE HOOT AND SHOEMAKERS' WORKING UNIONS," having effected the requisite organization, appeals to our fellow citizens of all classes, and especially to those who desire an improvement of the general condition of labor, for subscriptions to the stock of the Union, in which the shares are twenty-five dollars each.

For this purpose the subscription books will be opened by the agent in the office of the Tribune from 9 A.M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 9 P.M. of this and several following days.

The Union first appeals to all who are or have been connected with the trade, especially to working shoemakers, for effective and practical cooperation in the good work, but they appeal also to the generous and philanthropic men of all classes and conditions.

The Constitution and By-Laws are ready for distribution, and any desired information will be cheerfully given to all who may see fit to inquire at The Tribune Office for the Agent of the Union.

GREAT VOYAGE.—The splendid ship Columbus, owned by D. & A. Kingland & Co., as we learn by the last arrival from Europe, made her voyage from New-York to Tucson Light (off Liverpool) in fourteen days and nineteen hours. This is most extraordinary sailing, shorter than many steamer voyages, especially this way. The ship America, belonging to the same firm, lately made a fifteen day voyage to the same port.

The Fourth Presbyterian Church, having disposed of their present house of worship (on Twenty-second st.) will close their services in it on next Sabbath, May 12. Preaching during the day as usual, and also in the evening, commencing at a quarter before 8 o'clock. Thereafter they expect to hold their services in the church on the corner of Fourth-av. and Twenty-second-st. The church has purchased lots on Twenty-eighth-st. opposite the Free Academy, as a site for a new church.

Gov. Seward passed through our city yesterday, on a flying trip homeward. He will return to Washington within a few days.

STYLER'S GRAHAM, the lecturer on Diet and Regimen years ago, reached our city on a visit last evening.

The Columbian Philanthropic Society celebrates its Forty-fourth Anniversary to-night at Niblo's.

ACCIDENT AT THE DRY DOCK.—An accident occurred at the U.S. Dry Dock yesterday afternoon which resulted in the death of John Fitzgerald, a laborer, who was engaged in unloading a steam boiler from a truck, when an iron bolster in the truck broke, causing the boiler to fall on him.

An investigation of all the circumstances was made by the Coroner's Jury who returned the following verdict: "The said John Fitzgerald was killed by the accidental falling of a boiler which dislocated his neck. No blame to be attached to any person connected with the work, all proper precaution having been taken."

OWNERS WANTED.—At the Chief's Office for a fine dark overcoat, red spotted lining; two black frock coats; one brown cloth overcoat; three gold studs, a breastpin with pink stone, two silk handkerchiefs and one cravat.

The HUTCHINSONS were compelled to give up their concert last evening in consequence of the illness of one of the brothers, and will not be heard again for a week or so. This will be a disappointment to many who are now here attending the Anniversary, and who had hoped to listen to these mountain singers during their visit.

FOWLER'S lectures continue to present great attractions, and have produced quite a phenomenal excitement both above Bleecker street and below. The lecture to-night is the last but one in the course and will be one of great interest.

THE ORATORY OF THE MESSIAH.—To-night we are to hear for the first time in many years, this greatest of Orators, as given by the new Sacred Music Association, the Harmonic Society. Those who know the difficulty of originating and keeping up a Society of this kind in this city, and who appreciate the advantages of an adequate presentation of the highest order of vocal music, should not neglect the claims of this young Society. A little judicious aid at the outset will secure its success, and render its lasting and most salutary source of pleasure and profit to the community.

THE NEW-YORK SKETCH CLUB, at its Annual meeting held, prior to adjournment during the summer season, elected as its officers for the coming year, William Walcott, Sec. President, F. A. Chapman, Vice President, J. H. Caffery, Secretary, and J. Hagen, Treasurer. The Club has entered on the fourth year of its existence, and numbers nineteen regular members (artists) being within one of the complement allowed by its constitution, and over thirty honorary members, principally amateur artists and members of the Editorial profession. Some of our best known artists are members of the Club. The Annual Meeting was held at the residence of Mr. Wetherston, Ashland-square, when some, a member of the Club, is now studying in Europe as landscape painter.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

ANTI-SLAVERY ADDRESS.—Mr. WENDALL PHILLIPS, of Boston, by invitation of the citizens of Brooklyn, will deliver a lecture on Slavery this evening, at the Brooklyn Institute.

The accounts of Cornelius W. Lawrence, late Collector of this Port, have been adjusted and closed on the books of the Treasury Department. Mr. Lawrence was Collector for the four years ending on the 30th June last. The amount of public moneys received and accounted for by him during this period was $77,433,121.

From Ecuador.

We have advices from Quito to the 10th, and Guayaquil to the 16th ult. The Province of Guayaquil continues in a state of insurrection, though no active measures of opposition have yet been adopted. The state of the roads is such during the rainy season, which lasts from December to June, as to prevent the movement of troops from Quito to the sea-board, and therefore the Government has not been able to employ force to quell the insurrection.

Mr. Van Allen, the American Minister, had been seriously ill of the fever of the country, but at the last accounts had recovered.

COURT CALENDAR.—This day—Common Pleas—Part I. before Judge Ingraham—Nos. 651, 663, 667, 35, 37, 103, 105, 407, 109, 589, 111, 113, 115, 617, 117, Part II.—Nos. 122, 124, 126, 128, 130, 132, 134, 140, 142, 148, 150, 154, 156, 158.

Circuit Court—Nos. 526, 599, 623, 632, 634 to 639, 641 to 644.

Superior Court—Nos. 126, 37, 42, 8, 1, 14, 17, 9, 13, 43 to 51, 38, 26.

Trial of One-Eyed Thompson.

City Court—Before Judge Greenwood and Alderman Peet and Lambert.—At the opening of the Court, the Judge remarked that an order made on Monday last, requiring James Gordon Bennett, Publisher of the New York Herald, to appear on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of Court, in publishing a certain article in the columns of the paper of which he is publisher.

"Does any one appear in behalf of Bennett?" Mr. Galbraith, Bennett's counsel appeared in behalf of the latter, and in reply said, he disclaimed on the part of Mr. Bennett any intention to reflect injuriously upon the ability or integrity of the Court, and regretted that his communications on the trial had admitted of any such construction. He felt a deep interest in the proceedings of this trial and desired to aid the administration of justice that to obstruct it. He supposed it was right to comment on the proceedings of the trial; though he would not insist upon that point. He hoped this explanation would prove satisfactory to the Court. The counsel said in conclusion, that Mr. Bennett had retracted the offensive article by the same paper in which it had appeared, believing this to be the most satisfactory course, and hoped the Court would look on the matter in the same light.

The Court—We are pleased to perceive the publication of the Herald manifest a proper spirit at this time with respect to the exceptionable articles that he had previously published and shall forbear any comment further than to say that in this matter we were actuated solely by a regard to the duty we owe ourselves, as constituting a Court of Justice, and the obligations that devolve upon us to maintain the respect due to the administration of the laws.

After the remarks the examination of the witnesses on the part of the defense commenced.

Corkin, Carl, sworn.—Keeps a livery stable in this City; should think the character of James Arlington Bennett bad; would not believe him under oath unless corroborated by other witnesses.

On the cross-examination of this witness he stated that he had heard bad reports of Mr. Bennett; that he would not pay his workmen several other witnesses were examined upon the same point, among whom were John Harper, of the corn oil and Harper Brothers, Peter Neefus, a flour merchant, and Rufus H. Williams, a Police officer.

George Norris, sworn, for defense.—Am a Police officer in New-York. Q. Were you applied to by me on the 17th Dec. last in relation to a $50 bill. (Objected to as having nothing to do with the case.) The defendant then offered to prove that he had been working against the Dry Dock party since May last. After some argument the Court allowed the case to go on. On the 17th Dec. last defendant came to the office of the Chief of Police, and told me he wanted to give me some information. I suggested that the Chief had better hear it with me, which was declined by defendant; defendant asked me to write to Marshal Takey, to furnish the description of a man who passed a $100 bill of the Mechanics and Traders' Bank of New-York; I received an answer which did not suit me, and at his request I wrote again in relation to a man who had been passing a $50 altera bill on the Traders' Bank of New-York; defendant then wanted me to go to Chatham square, where the other bill was passed, and see if the description of the man that was arrested in Boston was not the same; defendant also spoke of some dies, and some men who were on the point of starting out into the country on the business of counterfeiting, and wanted some money carried out with them. On the cross-examination, this witness stated that he never knew of defendant having been engaged as a police-officer by any one authorized to employ him; he had understood that he had some business for Thomas Warner and Dr. Moffat.

John Lamberson, sworn, District Attorney of Queens County.—Am not acquainted with the reputation of either of the Dryks, except as I learned in the prosecution of the public nuisance. I never lent Samuel Drury a gun; I am in my office for a copy of the of the Dryks against his father, and taking up a gun in my office, said that it was an old gun, and that he had one which he could lend me, and being pleased with it, I made a liberal offer to Mr. Drury, who declined saying, that he would keep it for young Sam; I had a conversation with Sam two or three days ago, when he stated that he did not swear, a few days ago, he lent me the gun.

Joseph Dowling, a police officer of New-York, deposed.—That he was present at the arrest of Drury; searched the house, and found upon him articles which were a press and other articles. John C. Smith, Justice of this City, deposed that Bennett made the complaint in regard to the forged $50 note on the Traders' Bank, and at the time he was very much excited; he also swore that he would not believe him under oath.

Treadwell Van Nostrand deposed that the box which contained the screw he saw was about as thick as his wrist, and that the screw resembled a common screw in the city, and which was a common screw in the city.

Sophia Schefko, sworn for defense.—Is sister-in-law to defendant; have been to his house on Bennett's place; never saw there any counterfeit money or machinery; have seen Drury; defendant gave him a package; it contained two or three brass plates and some papers; the papers were marked out in letters by little blue paper, and in the middle of each block of paper (marked) Can't say whether those are the ones, but they are very similar; have lived with defendant, off and on, about ten years; defendant had a private room in which he kept medicines, bottles, &c. (On her cross-examination the witness said she had seen Field and the Drury on the premises.) Saw Catherine Davenport a number of times; never saw defendant give her bills; the buttons used to counterfeit money, and the money was made in the middle of each block of paper (marked) Can't say whether those are the ones, but they are very similar; have lived with defendant, off and on, about ten years; defendant had a private room in which he kept medicines, bottles, &c. (On her cross-examination the witness said she had seen Field and the Drury on the premises.) Saw Catherine Davenport a number of times; never saw defendant give her bills; the buttons used to counterfeit money, and the money was made in the middle of each block of paper (marked) Can't say whether those are the ones, but they are very similar; have lived with defendant, off and on, about ten years; defendant had a private room in which he kept medicines, bottles, &c. (On her cross-examination the witness said she had seen Field and the Drury on the premises.) Saw Catherine Davenport a number of times; never saw defendant give her bills; the buttons used to counterfeit money, and the money was made in the middle of each block of paper (marked) Can't say whether those are the ones, but they are very similar; have lived with defendant, off and on, about ten years; defendant had a private room in which he kept medicines, bottles, &c.
